Youth Camp and Conference Policy

Endorsed by Session [11/19/12]

Reviewed by Session [6/22/15]

General Policy Statement:

Forest Hills Presbyterian Church, in a spirit of love and encouragement, strives to support its youth by helping to pay for Christian Education endorsed camps and conferences.

Transportation to and from events will be covered by Forest Hills.

Equipment descriptions:

For camps or conferences that are more than 100 miles away, a van may be rented. This budgeted fee for rental and fuel is covered by Forest Hills Presbyterian Church and youth are not asked to contribute toward this expense.

Policy Details:

The following expenses (not to exceed the stated budget) will be paid for children of church members attending one youth camp or youth conference per year:

50% of expenses which includes registration fees and the cost of the camp

Each child of a non-member who desires to be a part of our youth's activities will be given consideration on a case by case basis through the CE Ministry.

Reimbursement for meals and extra expenses during travel are not included. Any additional camps or conferences attended by a person will be paid in full by the youth and are not reimbursable by FHPC.
